Subject: Complaint against Rusty McLean

I, the undersigned hereby complain against

Rusty McLean
1878 Camp Branch Road
Waynesville, NC 28786
(828) 452-2896

I agree to cooperate by furnishing to the representatives of the North Carolina State Bar all pertinent information and records in my possession concerning the alleged misconduct of said attorney. I further agree that if a hearing or inquiry is ordered concerning the alleged misconduct of said attorney, then I will furnish evidence concerning the facts by submitting to deposition or personal attendance at the hearing or inquiry. I hereby indicate that this information is provided and transmitted by me to the North Carolina State Bar for the purpose of investigating the alleged misconduct of the above named attorney. I understand that I may also need to reveal this information to a privately-retained attorney to pursue private remedies on my behalf. I further understand that the immunity granted by North Carolina General Statute 84-28.2 applies only to those statements made without malice and intended for transmittal only to the North Carolina State Bar.

I also understand that the North Carolina State Bar may reveal this information to the accused attorney for his response to a formal inquiry and to others pursuant only to the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina State Bar.

I submitted a Demand Letter to Rusty McLean dated February 5, 2013 via the USPS, requesting all of my legal files and those files from Ramdog Enterprises LLC from him within ten (10) days. See the enclosed letter. I received the green Return Receipt from the Demand Letter via the USPS on February 8, 2013.

Rusty McLean has failed to provide me with files specified in my Demand Letter.

I feel that this constitutes unethical behavior on the part of Rusty McLean, and request that you use the full force and effect available from the North Carolina State Bar to admonish or prosecute my claim of unethical behavior.

Sincerely,

Terry Ramey
