Subject: E-mail Dialog with Ira Dove and Stonewall Blevins.

With the departure of Mark Swanger and David Francis, you would think things would have improved a little bit here in sleepy little Haywood County, but no. We still have to deal with the likes of Ira Dove, Haywood County Manager, and Stonewall Belvins, Haywood County Health and Human Services Agency Director who is also Haywood County Assistant County Manager.

By now, people ought to know when I ask a simple question, I expect a simple answer. Once I get the simple answer, I go away. If I get a bunch of [expletive deleted], I will persist.

Reviewing <http://haywoodtp.net/pubII/170914RequestForPublicInformation-Spainhour.pdf> and <http://haywoodtp.net/pubII/170914ResponseFromIraDoveToRFL.pdf> , we get a bunch of crap from our County Manager. By the way, on an unrelated topic, Buncombe County Manager Wanda Green has resigned, and is currently under FBI investigation.

[Editors Note: If a link appears dead, simply copy and paste the http: address into your favorite browser.]

The simple requests were:

- The investigation report completed by Shannon (Missy) Spainhour, mss@dhwlegal.com, commissioned by county commissioners on Mike Matthews, and
- Release of Haywood County Closed Session Minutes, especially dealing with the county's investigation into the tax collector's office and/or Mike Matthews, including agendas, minutes, notes, descriptions or recordings for the proceedings of any such session. Since the report has been completed and given to the county, the closed session minutes relating to whether the county would investigate the tax collector should no longer be confidential.

This e-mail dialog is primarily with Ira Dove and Stonewall Blevins, but it does include a bonus! During this dialog, James Weaver "Kirk" Kirkpatrick III's sister, Angell Kirkpatrick Benson endangered children's lives by driving a school bus loaded with kids while drunk.

See: <http://haywoodtp.net/pubII/170918-HAYWOOD17CR052975Details2017-09-18.01.16.50.000512.PDF>

Unless these people start treating Haywood County Taxpayers with a little more respect, I believe they should go the way of Mark Swanger and David Francis.

The e-mails begin at the point after I received my response from Ira Dove - "On advice of Counsel no information will be released", to current.

Monroe A. Miller, Jr.
Haywood County Taxpayer.

Say Ira,

This is exactly the type of response I get from people to act like they have something to hide.

Who is your Counsel?

- Chip Killian?
- Missy Spainhour?
- Kirk Kirkpatrick?
- You?
- David Wijiwickerama?
- Someone else?

Say Kirk,

Did you see the article in the Mountaineer today?

http://www.themountaineer.com/news/bus-driver-with-children-on-board-charged-with-dwi/article\_fc83e644-9977-11e7-89dc-538af7c21f26.html

The newscast on WLOS indicated that this stupid drunk driver endangering the lives of a bunch of little kids was your sister! Does your current wife have a similar drinking problem?

Mr. Dove,

I am all too aware that Chip, a.k.a. Leon Killian is the County Attorney, but that is not the question I asked. You are evading. I also know full well that you (the county) use multiple lawyers for different problems you get yourselves into. My question was "Which Counsel gave you the advice that no information would be released".

Mr. Dove,

I am interested in how Missy Spainhour's confidential report wound up in Vicki Hyatt's in-basket. That issue should have been something the county would have jumped on with an internal investigation to find out who did that. Let's be real, just like the Jason Bourne movie, the pool of people has to be small, only those with access to the confidential report. Now, you have a counsel that is shielding this information from the public, certainly not because any investigation is taking place. And I want you to be specific on which counsel that was, not simply that Chip Killian is the County Attorney, as I will likely be spending some time filing a complaint with the North Carolina Bar Association for obstruction. By the way, since you are a lawyer, and have not initiated an internal investigation on this, you will likely be named in the complaint also.

So you see, it is important I get from you exactly which counsel advised you that no information will be released.
