Subject: E-mail dialog with Kris Boyd, capped off with smart-ass remark by Kevin Ensley.

Kris Boyd, newly promoted to the position of Operations Director, and now the focus of the WRIT OF CERTIORARI, filed by Doyle Sutton, a lawsuit based on selective enforcement of County Ordinance 114, is the go-to guy when you want to access county property, like the Francis Farm Landfill.

Doyle Sutton seeking a Writ of Certiorari in Superior Court against Kris Boyd, Bryant Morehead, Kevin Ensley, James Weaver "Kirk" Kirkpatrick the III, Brandon Rogers, Tommy Long and Mark Pless. This dialog with Kris Boyd [actually Kris Boyd never responded at any time during this e-mail "dialog"], centers on a request to take a tour of the Annex II building, which is owned by the county. The Annex II building, according to scuttlebutt, is the location county commissioners have chosen to dump the Haywood County School Administration into when the Old Hospital is renovated by Land Mark. The School Administration has been given until the end of 2020 to pack their bags. [See the Lease Agreement...]

Terry Ramey, now running for county commissioner, and I toured the CES location, owned by the School System, guided by Trevor Putnam. [See the review ...]

<https://www.haywoodtp.net/pubTP/T190902.pdf>

When Terry Ramey and I had requested to tour the Francis Farm Landfill, it was like pulling teeth to get Kris Boyd to cooperate. [See the review...]

<https://www.haywoodtp.net/pubII/191012aFrancisFarm-WhiteOakLandfills.pdf>

Kris Boyd was non-responsive with my request to have Terry Ramey and I tour the Annex II, and still has not responded. However, Kevin Ensley, Chair of the Haywood County Commissioners, and is currently running for re-election, jumped in at the last minute with a snide remark. Evidently, Kris Boyd is unable to respond by himself.

My recommendation to Kevin Ensley is that people that live in glass houses don't throw stones..

My recommendation to the Haywood County Commissioners, is that if Kris Boyd is unable to fulfill his duties at Operations Director, due to the recent death of his father, that county commissioners should have the County Manager, Bryant Morehead, relieve Kris Boyd of his position, and appoint someone else as an interim person, until at such time, Kris Boyd is able to resume his job.

Here we go...

Mr. Boyd,

It has been brought to my attention that there are rumblings that the County is going to stuff the School Administration into the Annex II building across the street from the Old Hospital Building. Since that violates the Lease Agreement between the COUNTY OF HAYWOOD and the HAYWOOD COUNTY CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL SYSTEM, I would like to see for myself why this is even being considered, so Terry Ramey and I would like to tour the Annex II with the express purpose of determining if it is " ... Lessor will promptly furnish and provide Lessee with comparable quarters within the Town of Waynesville, (or elsewhere as agreed upon by both parties) with due to the requirements of Lessee as to square footage, type of construction, and design suitable to meet the needs and requirements of Lessee; in other word, "equal" offices. ", [re: from the 9/25/98 Lease].

Since Morehead and Mark Pless tagged along with the tour of Francis Farm, they might also be interested in tagging along on this tour.

Please let Terry and I know when you, or someone you designate, can open the doors to the Annex II building for a tour.

Ms. Way,

Kris Boyd is again unresponsive to my request. Is there another county employee I can direct this request to, or can I come in and check out a key for the place, and Terry Ramey and I will conduct our own tour?

Thank you,

Monroe A. Miller, Jr.

Mr. Boyd,

There are few things that aggravate me more than a public official not responding to an e-mail. I know that you are now the focus of a lawsuit against the county [[re:19CVS1282, WRIT OF CERTIORARI. Doyle Sutton seeking a Writ of Certiorari in Superior Court against Kris Boyd, Bryant Morehead, Kevin Ensley, James Weaver "Kirk" Kirkpatrick the III, Brandon Rogers, Tommy Long and Mark Pless. Evidently, Mark Pless is not the answer here, but rest assured, I will find someone in the county to take Terry Ramey (now running for County Commissioner) to open the Annex II doors for a tour of the place. Once I do, I will likely request a Haywood County Sheriff's Deputy to accompany us.

Please respond.

Mr Boyd has been busy since his father just past away. His father was proud of Kris's work with our county. He did not think he was an embarrassment. When time permits I'm sure he may have time to fill your request. Please give him some time or you can continue to be an embarrassment to your father.
