Hey Monroe

Have you seen this

Thursday, December 1st at 6:00pm

"Elections Outcomes & Navigating Legislative Obstacles" with NC 118 Representative Mark Pless

Republican Headquarters, 297 N. Haywood St, Waynesville.

Visit with Representative Mark Pless and learn his perspective as he brings us up to speed on the implications of the November 8th Red Tsunami in Haywood County and other races throughout North Carolina.

Snacks and drinks provided.

Hi Eddie,

Hope everyone had a wonderful Happy Thanksgiving! Interesting photo of Pless - looks like he had a run in with a go-devil splitting wood and lost.

As you must be aware, you, I, Richard West and Richard Cranium are still on the No Trespass list from Tom Stark (who is now in the ground). So I will miss the snacks and drinks at the Mark Pless event. However, there is another worthwhile event coming up Tuesday you should attend, however Ce Ce Hipps at the Chamber of Commerce is charging $40 per to attend, but you do get a lunch. As advertised in the mountaineer -

Catch a redux of the Haywood election with political analyst November 18, 2022, Want to hear more about what the election results mean? The Haywood County Chamber of Commerce will host “Haywood County Political Landscape Forum” from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 29, at Wells Event Center in downtown Waynesville. Guest speaker will be Christopher Cooper, public policy professor and political analyst at Western Carolina University. He will break down the November election results in Haywood County — in the context of WNC’s shifting political landscape and trends — and examine how the results could impact the county in the future. Cooper, who is a nationally known political pundit and author, has received numerous accolades during his tenure at WCU and is often used as a media source for his political knowledge.

I am going to pay real $money$ to see this event so that this go-to guy can tell me why Terry and Sebastian won the election. I understand Terry will be the guest of honor!

Also, James Weaver "Kirk" Kirkpatrick the III has presumably had his county email address striped away, so if you want to keep him on this copy list, be sure to use - kirk@jwklaw.net. However, I think "out of sight - out of mind".

Did you hear what Kevin "Adjudication" Ensley said at the last county commission meeting, while eulogizing James Weaver "Kirk" Kirkpatrick the III? From the mountaineer article by Liberal Hack Writer Vicki Hyatt -

“You were elected those five terms because you looked out for the people,” Ensley said at the meeting. “There was not a red wave across the nation, but there was in Haywood County. Even though you were nonpartisan and nonpolitical, it swept you out.”

Spoken like a true [RINO]. You know, if I didn't know any better, I would think that would be cause for charging Ensley with Party Disloyalty! I have to come to the conclusion that Kevin "Adjudication" Ensley has two (2) brain cells, and they are both competing for third place.
