Who is this?

I was invited over to Luke Kinsland's office on 8/2/2023 by WPD Chief David Adams to take photos of the women's locker room, the sauna, and view security video specifically related to the afternoon of 7/12/2023. See the following two links on www.haywoodtp.net -

From the link above, Part 6! -

Mr. Kinsland,

While you were guiding us through the security surveillance video for the afternoon of 7/12/2023, and specifically, the single video recording showing the hallway leading to the family changing room and the women's locker room, there were three key moments.

1. 12:42 pm. Two underage females along with their guardian entered the women's locker room. The women's locker room has two entrances/exits. The first from the hallway behind the reception desk, monitored by the video we reviewed, and another separate access to the pool area. It is presumed that the two underage females changed clothes, left the locker room for an hour of pool fun/enjoyment. These people were identified by Chief Adams as those that appear in the new/amended incident report (WPD2301051).
 2. 1:51 pm. Three he/him/her/she/they/them/it/whatever transgender female's (?) entered the women's locker room. Two were big women, and a third, in a butch haircut, blue striped pants and top, and tattoos up and down her arms and back, (blue hair ?), walked in together. These people were identified by Chief Adams as those that appear in the new/amended incident report (WPD2301051).
 3. 1:58:03 pm. Seven (7) minutes later, three (3) underage females exited the women's locker room. One was older than the other two. These minors were identified by Chief Adams as those that appear in the new/amended incident report (WPD2301051).

So, take a moment out, re-read item #2. above, and re-examine the photo at the beginning of this piece. What do you think? Any possibilities?

There are multiple people that know the identity of this he/him/her/she/they/them/it/whatever, and some of them are:

- Martha Sharpe Bradley, who has refused to provide the identity citing security concerns, fearing that this person may be threatened;
- WPD Chief David Adams, who indicated on 8/2/2023 that he personally interviewed the three women in that portion of the video of 2. above, and that all three had vagina's, that was per their drivers licenses, whose sex had been marked "F". Chief Adams did not disclose the name of any of these individuals.
- Luke Kinsland, who knows all of these people, as he maintains the roster of people signing into the Rec Center, but was prohibited from disclosure from both Rob Hites and Martha Sharpe Bradley;
- Tera McIntosh, who was present during the Rec Center ADVISORY COMMISSION MEETING held in the Rec Center on 8/21/2023 at 5:30 pm, disclosed that she personally knew this person, and had talked with this person about this incident, and he/him/her/she/they/them/it/whatever provided a different narrative than that provided in the WPD Incident/Investigation Report, WPD2301087, by the freaked out young girls, in effect calling the girls in the locker room - liars.

[Editor's Note: Tera McIntosh, prior to the start of the Advisory Commission Meeting, was seated across the room from Concerned Citizens. Tera McIntosh discretely took a photo on her cell phone of me and other Concerned Citizens. Nothing wrong with that, as this was a public meeting. Tera McIntosh got called out, [re: recording] asked why she took a photo, and she lied! She said she was only looking at text on her phone. I know when someone is taking a photo from their phone, along with everyone else in Haywood County. Why did she feel she had to lie?]

Tera McIntosh is stirring the pot, practically accusing the girls who gave information to WPD of lying.

I don't appreciate there being two different stories going around what happened the afternoon of 7/12/2023 in the women's locker room at the Rec Center.

So here is a way to resolve this. Have Tera McIntosh come forward with the name of the third (3rd) person with the tattoos on her arms and butch haircut. Invite this he/him/her/she/they/them/it/whatever to come and speak at the Buttered Biscuit, so he/him/her/she/they/them/it/whatever can tell her side of the story, and we will then all compare it with the WPD Incident/Investigation Report, WPD2301087, and we can all decide which story we wish to believe. These people want to be in your face, so here would be a great opportunity.
